

proudly announces a new release:

Accompanying Skills for Pianists
Second Edition!

expanded to include:

SightPlay with Skillful Eyes

techniques and exercises

to use the eyes efficiently and see large parts of the page

Musical examples

increased to a total of 96

Epilogue:

Reflections on a Career as a Collaborative Pianist

Bibliography

more comprehensive and current

Accompanying Skills for Pianists
Second Edition

INCLUDING
SightPlay with Skillful Eyes

Deon Nielsen Price, D.M.A.

Accompanying Skills for Pianists

Second Edition!

Retains features of the First Edition:

Coded for strings, winds, and voices

Exercises with each chapter

Anecdotes by Ayke Agus from her collaboration with legendary violinist Jascha Heifetz

List of Musical Examples (errata now corrected)

Index

Contents of Second Edition:

PART I The Sensitive Accompanist: Beyond Solo Pianistic Skills

Chapters on listening, playing, and functional skills, as well as on recognizing types of accompaniments; new chapter on sightplaying

PART II Stylistic Insights: Skills for Specific Historical Periods

Chapters on Ancient-Medieval-Renaissance-Baroque, Classical,
Romantic, and Contemporary accompaniments

PART III Collaborative Skills: Preparing and Performing

Chapters on efficient rehearsals and rewarding performances

Critical Praise for the First Edition, used in over 80 universities

“I really enjoyed reading your text. You covered virtually everything associated with the profession... language is clear and always friendly... has a very warm tone...”

(Martin Katz, University of Michigan; International Collaborative Artist)

“Congratulations! Your new book is terrific... well organized and well written... practical text... musical examples... will help accompanists for years to come.”

(Dr. Del Parkinson, Boise State University, Idaho; Concert Pianist)

“...the kind of book every accompanist yearns for.”

(Maurice Hinson, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary; Author/Music Editor/Pianist)

“Deon Price leads us literally by the hand into the twin worlds of musical artistry and technical mastery.”

(Natalie Limonick, Opera Guild of Southern California; Opera Director/Coach/Pianist/Accompanist)

“...now I have a suitable textook for my class... concise, comprehensive, useful!”

(Geraldine C. Hubbell, University of Southwestern Louisiana; Piano Faculty)

“I love this book—especially the way it delineates the character in song accompaniments. I’ve referred to it many times over the years.”

(Jan Sanborn, California State University, Northridge; Accompanist)

“Both the accompanying skills and the sightplaying books are great!”

(Peggy Spitzenberger, East Bernard, Texas; High School Accompanist)

Order by telephone, FAX, mail or online

Culver Crest Publications

P. O. Box 4484

Culver City, CA 90231-4484

TEL/FAX 310-838-4465

www.culvercrest.com

Access the Web site for catalog of books, CDs, and compositions by

Deon Nielsen Price

Doctor of Musical Arts-Honors in Piano
Accompanying (University of Southern California),
Master of Music-Piano (University of Michigan), Bachelor of Arts-Gold Medal in Piano (Brigham Young University); post graduate studies University of California at Los Angeles & Academia Pro Arte, Heidelberg.

Adjunct faculty member at University of California
Santa Barbara, California Community Colleges (Life-Certificate), University of Southern California, California State University, Northridge.

Collaborative artist in recital tours and workshops in 22 states, as well as at major concert halls in Panama City, Mexico City, Seoul, Shanghai, Beijing, Barcelona, Madrid, Heidelberg, Vienna, Paris, and London.

Commissioned composer and former president of the National Association of Composers/USA and the International Alliance for Women in Music.

Accompanying Skills for Pianists, Second Edition

2005; 232 pages· soft cover· 8½ x 11;

covered wire-wrap binding allows book to lie

flat; wrap-around cover facilitates shelving

ISBN 0-9627821-1-4 45.00

Beginning pianists

will learn to read music quickly with College Class Piano: Comprehensive Approach

edited by Deon Nielsen Price, who has taught a thousand beginners over the last 25 years:

“Students are always amazed that, after only one semester, they can read and play music from scores that utilize the entire keyboard!”

Information on the Web:

readingkeyboardmusic.com